Elections Commission Chair Responds to Federal Request for Wisconsin Voter Information

MADISON, WI – Mark Thomsen, chair of the Wisconsin Elections Commission (WEC), responded today to the request for Wisconsin’s voter list and other information about elections by the Presidential Advisory Commission on Election Integrity (PACEI).

“I am honored to report that Wisconsin state and local election officials along with many fellow citizens conducted a thorough statewide recount of the November 2016 Presidential Election in December 2016,” Thomsen said in the letter. “We are confident that the results are accurate and do not contain any statistically significant number of votes cast by persons who were not eligible to vote. We are proud of our open, honest and clean elections here in the Badger State.”

In the letter, Thomsen informed PACEI Vice-Chair Kris Kobach that Wisconsin will provide publicly-available data for the statutorily-required fee of $12,500. At this time, the federal government has not paid the fee and no data will be provided until the fee has been paid.

Thomsen also cautioned Kobach, the Kansas Secretary of State, about potential uses of Wisconsin’s voter data.

“Because Wisconsin and many other states are unable to disclose non-public data necessary to accurately match voters within or across states, I can only point out that the data being collected by the PACEI cannot be used to effectively assess the accuracy of Wisconsin’s or our great country’s voter rolls,” Thomsen wrote.

Finally, Thomsen invited Kobach, other members of the federal commission and staff to attend the WEC’s next meeting on September 26 in Madison. At that meeting, WEC members will discuss responses to other questions about election integrity and administration posed by the PACEI.

Background

By law, most of the information in Wisconsin's voter registration system is public and is available for purchase, and is commonly purchased by political parties, candidates, researchers and other organizations. A voter's name, address and voting history are public, and this information has already been provided to campaigns and other requestors who have paid for it. Wisconsin does not collect any information about a voter's political preference or gender.

Wisconsin statutes do not permit the state to release a voter's date of birth, driver license number or partial Social Security number. State statutes permit the WEC to share confidential information in limited circumstances with law enforcement agencies or agencies of other states. The Presidential Commission does not qualify under either of these categories.

The WEC does not have the discretion to deny a request for the public information in the voter registration database if the required fee is paid. By administrative rule, the price is $12,500 for the entire statewide voter file, and Wisconsin law does not contain any provision for waiving the fee for voter data.

(Attached to this release are the two letters received from the PACEI and Chair Thomsen's response letter.)

The Wisconsin Elections Commission is responsible for administration and enforcement of election laws in Wisconsin. The Commission is made up of six Commissioners – four appointed directly by the State Senate Majority Leader, Speaker of the Assembly and the Minority Leaders in the State Senate and Assembly. The remaining two Commissioners are by the Governor with confirmation by the State Senate from lists of former municipal and county clerks submitted by the legislative leadership in each party.

Presidential Advisory Commission on Election Integrity

July 26, 2017

Wisconsin Elections Commission
Mr. Michael Haas, Administrator
P.O. Box 7984
Madison, WI 53707

Dear Administrator Haas,

In my capacity as Vice Chair of the Presidential Advisory Commission on Election Integrity, I wrote to you on June 28, 2017, to request publicly available voter registration records. On July 10, 2017, the Commission staff requested that you delay submitting any records until the U.S. District Court for the District of Columbia ruled on a motion from the Electronic Privacy Information Center that sought to prevent the Commission from receiving the records. On July 24, 2017, the court denied that motion. In light of that decision in the Commission's favor, I write to renew the June 28 request, as well as to answer questions some States raised about the request's scope and the Commission's intent regarding its use of the registration records. I appreciate the cooperation of chief election officials from more than 30 States who have already responded to the June 28 request and either agreed to provide these publicly available records, or are currently evaluating what specific records they may provide in accordance with their State laws.

Like you, I serve as the chief election official of my State. And like you, ensuring the privacy and security of any non-public voter information is a high priority. My June 28 letter only requested information that is already available to the public under the laws of your State, which is information that States regularly provide to political candidates, journalists, and other interested members of the public. As you know, federal law requires the States to maintain certain voter registration information and make it available to the public pursuant to the National Voter Registration Act (NVRA) and the Help America Vote Act (HAVA). The Commission recognizes that State laws differ regarding what specific voter registration information is publicly available.

I want to assure you that the Commission will not publicly release any personally identifiable information regarding any individual voter or any group of voters from the voter registration records you submit. Individuals' voter registration records will be kept confidential and secure throughout the duration of the Commission's existence. Once the Commission's analysis is complete, the Commission will dispose of the data as permitted by federal law. The only information that will be made public are statistical conclusions drawn from the data, other general observations that may be drawn from the data, and any correspondence that you may send to the Commission in response to the narrative questions enumerated in the June 28 letter. Let me be clear, the Commission will not release any personally identifiable information from voter registration records to the public.

In addition, to address issues raised in recent litigation regarding the data transfer portal, the Commission is offering a new tool for you to transmit data directly to the White House computer system. To securely submit your State's data, please have a member of your staff contact Ron Williams on the Commission's staff at ElectionIntegrityStaff@ovp.eop.gov and provide his or her contact information. Commission staff will then reach out to your point of contact to provide detailed instructions for submitting the data securely.

The Commission will approach all of its work without preconceived conclusions or prejudgments. The Members of this bipartisan Commission are interested in gathering facts and going where those facts lead. We take seriously the Commission's mission pursuant to Executive Order 13799 to identify those laws, rules, policies, activities, strategies, and practices that either enhance or undermine the integrity of elections processes. I look forward to working with you in the months ahead to advance those objectives.

Sincerely,

Mr. Kris W. Kobach
Vice Chair
Presidential Advisory Commission on Election Integrity
Washington, DC

Dear Mr. Kobach:

As Chair of the bipartisan Wisconsin Elections Commission (WEC), which oversees the work of our agency staff, I am responding to your correspondence dated July 26, 2017 requesting that the State of Wisconsin provide publicly available data from its voter registration database to the Presidential Advisory Commission on Election Integrity (PACEI). The WEC's next meeting is scheduled for September 26, 2017, and the full Commission will publicly discuss all your requests for information at that time. I anticipate that the WEC will work with you and your fellow commissioners to the extent allowed by Wisconsin law. However, I wanted to provide you with a prompt preliminary response.

I am honored to report that Wisconsin state and local election officials along with many fellow citizens conducted a thorough statewide recount of the November 2016 Presidential Election in December 2016. We are confident that the results are accurate and do not contain any statistically significant number of votes cast by persons who were not eligible to vote.¹ We are proud of our open, honest and clean elections here in the Badger State.

The WEC maintains Wisconsin's voter registration database. Under Wisconsin law, certain limited data about Wisconsin voters is available for purchase from the WEC. The publicly available data includes the names, addresses and voter participation histories of individuals who are registered voters or have been registered voters at some point since 2005, as well as indicators that an individual is a military or permanent overseas voter.

Under Wisconsin law, the WEC must maintain the confidentiality of other voter data including birthdates, driver license numbers, and the last four digits of a Social Security number if it is included in the voter's record. The partial Social Security number data is limited to the relatively small number of voters who registered without providing a driver license or State ID number. A voter's request for an accommodation due to a disability and the name and address of confidential voters (who are victims of domestic or sexual abuse or assault) are also confidential data.

¹ For the November 8, 2016 Presidential Election, 79 potential incidents of voting by ineligible felons have been referred to local prosecutors for investigation and potential charges, which represents 0.00263 percent of the 3,004,051 votes cast. We do not have accurate statistics regarding how many, if any, of those referrals resulted in further investigation or prosecution.

Confidential data may be shared only with law enforcement agencies for law enforcement purposes and with agencies of other states for official purposes.

Because Wisconsin and many other states are unable to disclose non-public data necessary to accurately match voters within or across states, I can only point out that the data being collected by the PACEI cannot be used to effectively assess the accuracy of Wisconsin's or our great country's voter rolls. Through our experience in various data matching processes conducted by the WEC (and its predecessor entities), we know that even matching the first and last names as well as the birthdates of individuals in separate databases will likely result in numerous false positives. Because of the certainty of false positive matches when using limited databases, I hope and trust that you will not draw any conclusions about the extent of voter fraud in Wisconsin or nationwide from any analysis of the data being collected.

Twenty states, including Wisconsin, are members of the Electronic Registration Information Center (ERIC), which has an excellent track record of applying advanced data-matching techniques to its members' voter lists and other official data sources to help them maintain current and accurate voter rolls. I encourage the PACEI to consult with the experts at ERIC regarding the powers and limitations of list matching as well as the necessary steps to be taken to ensure that voter data is anonymized and securely maintained.

Your letter asked that a member of our staff contact PACEI staff regarding transfer of available voter data. However, before that can occur, Wisconsin Statutes and administrative rules establish a fee schedule for the publicly available data in the voter registration database based upon the number of voter records requested. The fee schedule is capped at $12,500 for the entire statewide list. Accordingly, the PACEI may purchase voter data and obtain it electronically from the WEC through our BADGER Voters website at <https://gabapps.wi.gov/BADGERVoters/default.aspx>. Payment must be received before a data request is fulfilled.

Please feel free to request Wisconsin's publicly available voter data directly from the BADGER Voters website, or have your staff contact WEC Public Information Officer Reid Magney, who can facilitate the fulfillment of your data request, at 608-267-7887 or reid.magney@wi.gov. If you have other questions regarding this correspondence, please feel free to contact or call me by contacting Mr. Magney, who will provide you with a direct line to me.

The WEC will review and discuss all your additional questions at our September 26, 2017 meeting. Members of the PACEI and your staff are welcome to attend our meeting in Madison, Wisconsin, and we hope to see you in the Badger State. Forward, always Forward.

Sincerely,

Mark Thomsen

Dear Commissioner McCormick,

I am writing on behalf of the Privacy Coalition to ask if you would be available for a meeting at EPIC this Friday, July 28* from 12-1pm to discuss your work and priorities as a Commissioner on the Presidential Advisory Commission on Election Integrity.

The Privacy Coalition provides an important opportunity for representatives of privacy, civil liberty, and consumer organizations to meet with key government decision makers whose work affects privacy. Past speakers at the Privacy Coalition include FTC Acting Chairman Maureen Ohlhausen, DOJ Inspector General Michael Horowitz, and FBI General Counsel James A. Baker. We would greatly appreciate an opportunity to meet with you.

More information about the Privacy Coalition is available here:

Dear Members,

Congratulations for your appointment to the Presidential Advisory Commission on Election Integrity ("Commission"). We appreciate your leadership and look forward to working with you.

The General Services Administration filed the Commission's charter this past Friday, which officially establishes the Commission as a Presidential advisory committee and permits the Commission to commence its official duties under Executive Order 13799. As the Commission's Designated Federal Officer ("DFO"), I will support the Commission's work and its members with administrative needs and ensure the Commission complies with the Federal Advisory Committee Act ("FACA").

To update you, begin preparing for the Commission's first meeting, and answer any questions you have at this time, we would like to hold a conference call this Wednesday at 11:30 a.m. Eastern. Please let me know if you cannot participate in this call. I will send a calendar invitation with call-in information soon.

Please also hold July 19th on your calendars. This is the date we are tracking for the Commission's first meeting.

Please note that FACA requires public meetings and 15-day advance notices for "[a]ny gathering of advisory committee members (whether in person or through electronic means) held with the approval of an agency for the purpose of deliberating on the substantive matters upon which the advisory committee provides advice or recommendations." Thus, on this call the Commission may not "deliberat[e] on . . . substantive matters" such as what final recommendations the Commission might provide in its report. However, FACA allows discussion of the following without requiring an open meeting:

Preparatory work. Meetings of two or more advisory committee or subcommittee members convened solely to gather information, conduct research, or analyze relevant issues and facts in preparation for a meeting of the advisory committee, or to draft position papers for deliberation by the advisory committee; and Administrative work. Meetings of two or more advisory committee or subcommittee members convened solely to discuss administrative matters of the advisory committee or to receive administrative information from a Federal officer or agency.

In other words, we may freely discuss administrative matters and issues related to meeting preparation on this call, but we must be careful not to engage in deliberation on substantive matters.

With that said, please let me know if you have any questions or items you want to discuss during this call. And if you have any other questions in the meantime, please do not hesitate to let me know.

Again, thank you for your service. We look forward to speaking with you this week.

Best regards,
Andrew

Ms. McCormick,

Per your conversation with Mark Paoletta, and to the extent possible, it would be helpful to have the attached form completed and back to us today. This will commence the background checks necessary for an appointment. Additional forms and information will be requested. Please let me know if you have any questions.

Thank you for your prompt attention. Sincerely,

Matt
