Lynne, I'm sorry, I guess you will need to remove that section. I cannot believe there is not a defect action level for mayonnaise, etc. There is for the individual ingredients but not for the products themselves. Sorry. I still don't believe it.

Sharon,

I have attached your comments. My question is on your comment for 13.3.2.

Thank you letting me know.

Lynne

I'm confused...why you couldn't find it or why I wanted it.

Lynne Yedinak 04/25/05 09:56AM

Sharon,

You wanted a statement on the "Food Defect Action Levels Handbook" included. I could not find anything for Mayonnaise, Salad Dressing, and Tartar Sauce in it. Please explain why.

Thanks.

Lynne

Sorry, I was out and forgot to change my message. I was in LA, CA. What was the question you had.

Thank You

Sharon,

I have sent what I had. I do have a question on one of comments. I still need KC's comments.

She didn't say. If you have to send it forward go ahead and do it. I have been in Pasadena, CA. Got back Thursday. If you don't have it by now, go ahead and send in the comments I sent you.

Thank You

Sharon,

I can't extend the suspense. I owe USDA comments this Thursday. How much time will Kathy need? I'll see what I can do.
